Adult Craft and Maker Programs at Manchester Library

MANCHESTER – The Ocean County Library will host several adult craft and maker programs at its Manchester Branch, 21 Colonial Drive.

“Weaving in the Round” 10 a.m. Thursday, August 2. This is part two of a three-part series on weaving with inexpensive common items as your loom. Learn to make and use a round loom from a paper plate in this session. This project is of intermediate difficulty. Having attended the first program or having basic weaving knowledge would be helpful but not necessary.

“Have Your Picture Taken Anywhere Without Leaving the Library!” 10 a.m. Friday, August 24. Have your picture taken in an unexpected setting using green screen technology. Learn about some of the technology and how to obtain and use a simple app to take photos anywhere on (or off) Earth.

“Tree Branch Weaving” 1 p.m. Tuesday, August 28. This is part three of a three-part series on weaving with inexpensive common items as your loom. Create a unique work of art using only two basic materials: yarn and a tree branch. Create dazzling art with yarn and a tree branch. This project is advanced difficulty. Bring your own branch.

All materials will be supplied by the library unless otherwise noted.
