Manchester Library to Offer Craft Programs for Adults in September

MANCHESTER – The Manchester Branch of the Ocean County Library will host various craft programs for adults throughout the month of September.

- “Book Pages Roses” 1 p.m. Thursday, Sep. 5. Create beautiful flowers from the pages of old books for gifts or decorations. Participants may even create a centerpiece or a wreath.
- “Create a Fall Flower Basket” 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sep. 11. Local florist Tracy Vincent from Whiting Flower Shoppe will show how to make a floral arrangement using live flowers in seasonal colors. Each participant may take their finished project home. All raw materials will be provided but participants should bring their own scissors.
- “Button Art for Fall” 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sep. 18. Retired art teacher Theresa Krupinski will teach you how to make a fun and simple fall tree using colorful buttons, chalkboard markers, and a chalkboard slate. The presenter will provide necessary supplies but participants should bring their own buttons.

The branch is located at 21 Colonial Drive.

Registration is required for these free programs. To register, call the branch at 732-657-7600 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
