Business Programs Coming to Jackson Library

JACKSON – The Jackson Branch of the Ocean County Library will host several business-related programs this fall presented in partnership with SCORE of Ocean County.

“Communication Skills for Improved Relationships in Your Business” 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sep. 25. Award-winning communications and marketing professional Nicole Pace-Addeo will present this high-impact seminar on promoting your business through networking, sales pitches, and presentations. Learn the fundamentals of public speaking, where to use these skills, and how to impress new clients with ease.

“Website Design Tips for Your Business” 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 23. Internet marketing specialist Maureen Rushalski reviews design techniques and tips to improve your website.

“How to Launch a Successful Small Business” 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 4. Glenn Harris will discuss skills needed prior to launching your business. It will also cover financial, marketing, and business plans.

The branch is located at 2 Jackson Drive.

Registration is required for these free programs. To register, call the branch at 732-928-4400 or visit theoceancoutnylibrary.org/events.
